

'The Duelin' Piano Show'

'The Duelin' Piano Show' will have you thinking you've stepped inside a showroom in Vegas or O'Brians Bar in New Orleans. This show is a guaranteed winner as the two pianists capture the excitement of New Orleans and Las Vegas in any venue. A night with 'The Duelin' Piano Show' is a rollickin' feel good sing-along ride which has been performed in the Casinos around Australia. The audience chooses which songs the boys play from a repertoire of more than 350 songs, on a musical journey that encompasses all genres and eras.

Dubbed a two man, four handed piano thumping live act, 'The Duelin' Piano Show' is a portrayal of some of the most impressive songs of our time brought to life through the piano. These two men, dressed in swanky suits reserved for a Vegas showroom, swing like a well-oiled gate, playing songs as diverse as Sinatra and the Rat Pack to Prince, Ella Fitzgerald, Hank Williams, AC/DC, Cat Stevens, Elton John and U2. No genre remains untouched.

The faces behind 'The Duelin' Piano Show' are impressive musicians who have worked with some of the biggest names in the business. Between them they have songwriting credits with Grammy winners INXS, Lou Rawls and Keith Urban. These relaxed fun-filled entertainers joust through music, playing your favourite sing along songs with style. With ample experience touring the U.S.A. and Australia and playing to some of the harshest audiences and critics around the world, the duo has won acclaim for their extensive song choice. They literally take audiences on a journey through an eclectic range of songs as they belt them out using the ivories as their weapons of choice.

The musical journey is undertaken in style, on two custom built fully transportable grand pianos. This saves the cost and hassle of hiring two grand pianos for each performance.
